REPORT

Name of the Event: Workshop program for 1st Year B. Tech Students.

On the Topic: Effective Communication Skills

Resource Person: R.O.L Sharma

Date of the Event and time: 13- 10- 2022 & Morning session- 11:30 AM to 01:15 PM, Forenoon session- 03:00 PM- 04:15 PM.

Venue: A- Block Ground Floor Seminar Hall.

Description:

The Department of Science and Humanities organized workshop on "Effective Communication Skills".

Some of the points stated by the Resource person are:

Communication skills for any job are presentation, active listening, nonverbal communication, giving/taking feedback, and others. Improve your communication skills by learning how to listen, noticing nonverbal cues, and practicing oral communication.

It seems obvious that good communication would come naturally. But far too frequently, when we try to interact with others, something goes wrong. Misunderstandings, dissatisfaction, and disagreements happen when we say one thing and the other person hears something different.

Students were actively participated in the event.
